

Dear Affiliates:

We were so thrilled with the 2017 SCAAR Holiday Party and continue to hear great reviews of the event. We were also blown away with the attendance numbers, which were doubled from the previous year! Your support and financial contributions were key to making that happen. Thank you again for making that all possible.

SCAAR's Holiday Party has always been the capstone to wrapping up a successful real estate year and celebrating with those who helped to make that happen. SCAAR's 2018 Holiday Party planning committee has already met, and planning is in full swing.

Budget permitting, we will look for a social hour entertainer that will be both entertaining and allow for conversation. 2017's event was such a hit, that we just had to bring back Deuces Wild Dueling Pianos with Dave Eichholz and local musician Ted Manderfeld!!!! There is no better act that captures a diverse audience with comedy, music and interactive audience participation. This event will be crafted to give our attendees a night to celebrate with Dinner, Music and a Show!

We will recognize the past presidents and talk about SCAAR's contributions and involvement in the community. More will be added as the year unfolds to match the level of celebration that was experienced this past year.

TAKE NOTE: This year's Holiday Party is scheduled for Friday, November 30th at the Holiday Inn & Suites in St Cloud.

We are only able to make all of this come together with the assistance of affiliates like you. Your generous donations are what will give us the ability to keep this event rockin in both attendance and entertainment.

This past year we asked more of our affiliates than in the previous years, and affiliates responded enthusiastically. We are hoping for the same support this year. Attached is our 2018 Affiliate Sponsorship Letter. We will personally contact you during the next few months, and welcome calls, emails or a sit down meeting to discuss the event and sponsorship opportunities. Should you decide to contribute to the Holiday Party, please send donations to:
